

ASSOCIATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN
VIETNAM ASSOCIATION OF GEOPHYSICISTS
AND THE SOCIETY OF EXPLORATION GEOPHYSICISTS OF JAPAN

In recognition of mutual interests among their members, and as a means of furthering the common goals and objectives of Association and Society, the Executive Committees of the Vietnam Association of the Geophysicists (VAG) and Society of Exploration Geophysicists of Japan (SEGJ) have agreed to mutual association of the Association and the Society under the following terms:

1. Neither Association nor Society shall have any financial obligation to the other.
2. No member sponsorship shall be required to the members of Association and Society applying for membership of the other.
3. Association and Society shall invite the other to send an accredited representative to participate in a nonvoting capacity in its annual General meeting.
4. The Business Offices of both Association and Society shall exchange announcements of technical meetings of their respective Association and Society.
5. The members of Association and Society attending the meeting of the other, shall be applied the same registration fees as the host Association and Society members and be provided other courtesies of the host Association and Society.
6. Association and Society shall exchange two copies of each issue of their respective journals, one for the files of their business offices and one for their respective editorial committees.
7. Neither Association nor Society will publish the papers presented at the technical meeting of the other, unless otherwise a specific approval is obtained from the other Society.
8. Either Association or Society may publish reviews or abstracts of the papers published by the other, after notifying the current editorial committee of the publishing Society, as a matter of courtesy.
9. Members of both Association and Society may purchase special publications of the other, at the member prices of the publishing Association and Society.
10. Other areas of cooperation, such as to hold a joint periodical workshop or to invite each other as key-note or state-of-the-art speakers at the technical meeting of the respective Association and Society, shall be sought and considered, when feasible.
